Rivet School is a nonprofit college program that offers a clear, affordable path to earn a BA virtually (the first step to earning a teaching credential).

Interested staff and community members will work through a job-relevant BA program online, get support from a personal college coach, and work alongside a community of peers pursuing the same goal. Those who put in about 15 hours a week can earn a BA in as little as 2-3 years. Reach out to possible candidates and they can start their journey towards a bachelor's degree today.
